Course Title:	I.T. Security Analysis
Duration:	Five (5) Days
Class Schedule:	9:00am to 5:00pm
Target Participants:	Government and Private I.T. Personnel, Members of the Academe and College Graduates of Computer Science and I.T. related courses.
Total Hours:	35 Hours
Course Description:	This course introduces the key principles of effective information security practices.
Course Objectives:	By the completion of this course, the students will learn the important concepts and principles applied to information technology security.

Course Contents:

- Information Security Framework
- Access Control and Site Security
- Review of TCP/IP Internetworking
- Attack Methods and Countermeasures
- Host Hardening
- Elements of Cryptography
- Application Security
- Managing the Security Function